

First Aid at Work: Three Day Course

First Aid at Work: Three Day Course

This nationally accredited course meets the requirements that the Health and Safety Executive (HSE) insists companies must have regarding qualified first aiders in the workplace. The course is available as a three day course, and will equip you with the skills to deal with major and minor emergencies in the workplace.

Assessment on this course is assessed through their practical skills across the three days, and with multiple choice question papers. This course is also available as a two-day requalification course, and we would advise you contact us directly to discuss this.

Who Should Attend?

Any industrial, leisure or hospitality workers would greatly benefit from this course, as well as those in corporate or engineering environments.

Pricing:

The cost for each participant is £280, which includes a lunch for each day of the course.

Please note that no refund will be issued for cancellations made up to seven working days before the course begins.
